

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Automated business directory assistance routes a call for directory assistance to a speech recognizer which determines the type of assistance requested. If the request is for business information, the requested information is automatically
5 retrieved. Otherwise, the call is routed to a call center.